Precrafted designed homes

REVOLUTION is a collection of limited edition, pre-crafted properties, including homes and pavilions

TRANSPORTABLE.
The core appeal of prefabricated structures is the freedom from location and construction constraints; however, the result is often monotonous, homogenous design. Revolution Precrafted Properties reinvent this model by creating unique, high-design spaces that transcend geographic borders and excite the senses.ACCESSIBLE.
Great design on a large scale need not be limited to a privileged few, but rather available to a wider audience of art, design and architecture enthusiasts. Revolution democratizes high-design by making such renowned designs more financially available to a diverse clientele.COLLECTIBLE.
Revolution shifts our experience of livable space by reimagining it as a thoughtfully-designed, collectible property. Each space is exclusively conceived by a leading innovator in art, architecture and design and available in a limited edition series.
