

Loomio is an online tool used by thousands of groups world-wide to increase transparency and inclusion, decrease meetings and emails, and make better decisions together. "Discuss, decide and collaborate online. Free your organization from tedious meetings and endless email chains. With Loomio, people participate on the web, email or mobile, in their own time. Discussions stay on topic, and Loomio suits a variety of discussion formats and styles.

When you're ready to make a decision, get feedback, or move from talk to action, Loomio's polling tools are at your fingertips". Source - Loomio
